FUTURE BOSS OF GOW

MISS SHIRLEY MAY WHITAKER

The above is Miss Shirley May Whitaker, daughter of Cpl and Mrs. Andrew D. Whitaker. She is granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Whitaker and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bailey—the only grandchild in either family. Her father is in the Air Corps somewhere in Alaska.

Somebody said if a pipe was stuck in her mouth, she could replace the picture on the top of the first column, page 1. However that's a mighty hard thing to say about a defenseless baby.

Politics has taken a back seat in favor of the huge war loan drive of September. News of other things take secondary position in the face of this drive which MUST be successful, if we wish to avert inflation which will ruin all of us.

Grenada county's quota is $650,000.00 or about $20.00 for each man, woman and child in the county. Grenada county went 'way over the top in its last drive and MUST go over this September. There is immeasurably more money in Grenada county than ever before in its history.

The personnel of the drive is: Mr. C. H. Calhoon, permanent chairman, that is chairman of this and all subsequent drives; B. C. Adams, chairman of this drive; Mrs. E. L. Wilkins, chairman of women's activities and Mrs. W. W. Whitaker publicity chairman.

A number of volunteer saleswomen has been selected to make a house-to-house canvass. This is no more THEIR war than it is YOUR war, and, therefore YOU must receive them as comrades in the terrible fight, rather than as pin and needle sellers, scissors grinders and book peddlers.

Every farmer who gins a bale of cotton should buy at least a dollar stamp from his seed money; and, after his debts are paid, buy as many war bonds as possible.

Remember this: the government is making an intense drive to prevent the necessity of printing money and hastening inflation, by offering the safest security on God's green earth. It has but three ways to get money: by taxation the limit of which has been nearly attained; borrowing it; and PRINTING it. When, or if the printing presses start rolling, YOUR money, hoarded in the bank, in your pocket or under the hearth will lose value faster than an icicle loses weight in the broiling sun.

About the only contribution that average people can make to the war effort is in helping finance the war. Buy until it pinches.

We have no apologies to offer for using so much of our limited space in pushing the drive, for it is the MOST IMPERATIVE thing we know of.

So far, in the investigation of the alleged shooting-up of Duck Hill by negro soldiers, no civil authorities, not even the sheriff of Montgomery county or the District Attorney, have been permitted to "sit" in, even though the crime, if any, was committed outside the military reservation, upon civilians and within the jurisdiction of civil authorities. A big tale is likely to "break" while we are going to press, for there is likely to be a showdown Thursday with Congressman Abernethy participating. I did not know that Duck Hill was under martial law.

I called the Camp Commander's office Wednesday afternoon and, as he was out, requested the young lady (who said he would be back in about 30 minutes) to ask the C. C. to permit me, as a representative of the press, to be present. Evidently the press is not wanted for I have not yet heard from the Camp Commander. What's so mysterious about this business, anyway?

Do not treat the door to door sale ladies of government securities during the big bond drive like they were selling razor blades or can openers. They are working to help save YOU and YOURS. Buy to the limit. Grenada county has an immense quota, compared to its last quota, but can easily meet it, if our people appreciate the necessity of this drive.

Lomax Succeeded By Smythe

Attorney William A. Lomax has resigned as Project Manager of the local Land Acquisition Office of the War Department and has returned to the practice of law in his office in the Grenada Bank Building. He has been succeeded by Arnold R. Smythe, of Batesville, Miss.

Acquisition of Camp McCain is virtually complete as all landowners whose lands were not acquired by condemnation were paid off several months ago. Of the contested cases, only three more remain to be tried and trial of these will probably by had early next year. Federal Court was in special session at Oxford several months to dispose of these cases as rapidly as possible. It is our understanding that there are no contested cases in connection with the Grenada Air Base and only one in connection with the acquisition of Oxberry Auxiliary Field. Even though cases were contested, the Government pursued a policy of advancing the owners 85 percent of the estimated award and in practically all cases the owners have received at least partial distributions.

Mr. Lomax has been in charge of the Grenada office since July of 1942 and also handled acquisition of the Greenwood Air Base and its auxiliaries, as well as the Como Alien Enemy Camp. Mr. Smythe has been with the U. S. Engineers for sevral years and was project manager for the Sardis and Arkabutla dams.

Colored School To Receive Substantial Help From FWA

Superintendent John Rundle of the City Schools announced that, after about 9 months of work, seeking aid from the government to pay for additional room at the white school and at the colored school, the FWA had allocated a substantial sum for the colored school, an amount sufficient to build and fully equip four new rooms at the colored school.

The plans and specifications, prepared by Architect Overstreet, of Jackson, are finished. The money is available, and within a very short time, bids for the construction will be advertised.

Chinese Citizens Of Greenwood Visit Camp

Chinese-American relations received a boost this week at Camp McCain, when over 40 members of the Chinese Association of Leflore County, Greenwood, Miss., toured the 87th Infantry Division in return of a visit which Chinese members of the Division made to Greenwood a short while ago.

The party was met at the gate by Captain Eli J. Paris, Division Special Service Officer, and was conducted on tour throughout the camp area used by the Division. First, however, the party was greeted by Col. Russell C. Throckmorton, chief of staff, acting as host in the absence of Division Commander, Maj. General P. W. Clarkson.

The visiting group, who in June had provided an all-day outing for the Chinese members of the Division, including Chinese meals and entertainment, saw the same soldiers they had feted in surroundings of service clubs, recreation halls, barracks and training areas.

Ray W. Joe, chairman of the Leflore County Association, headed the delegation during the visit to the 87th.

Poor Mississippi.

Public Library Aids County Schools

In behalf of the Grenada County Department of Education, I would like to state a few of the facts relative to the Grenada County Library service which I think the public should know.

From September, 1942 to May, 1943 the County School service was as follows:

	Books	Circulation
Gore Springs	1865	8221
Hardy	1181	3483
Holcomb	910	3149
Kirkman	428	1733
Nebo	180	537

219 books at a cost of $150.00 were bought for the county schools with funds through the office of the Superintendent of Education. These books were distributed for reading, checked and mended by the library.

County Schools get credit with the Department of Education in Jackson on books furnished them by Grenada County Library. Were it not for these additional books, the library requirements of the Department of Education could not be met without a large expenditure by each school district.

415 county children attend Grenada City Schools and a large percent of that number, especially in the elementary schools, use the library themselves as well as check books for their parents.

I feel that Miss Elizabeth Jones and her capable assistants are most assuredly doing a worthwhile work and a ministry that can never be reckoned in dollars and cents in evaluating the worth to the children of the Grenada County schools.

Our children need and deserve the very best reading matter, conveniently located and the Grenada County Library is filling this need in a most acceptable manner and should have our commendation and support in every way possible at all times.

Mrs. Ethel B. Thomason,
Deputy Supt. of Education.

Mrs. George Garner and two sons, Wade and George, Jr., and Miss Mary Elizabeth McNeill spent Wednesday in Memphis.

Mr. Luther A. Martin Died Here August 23rd

While he was a regular attendant of Sparta church, he never officially united with any denomination. He and his family moved over into Beat 5 of Grenada county about 21 years ago. He was an honest upright man, respected by his neighbors and friends.

Surviving him are his widow, two sons, C. A. Martin and Sidney Martin, two dauhters, Mesdames Tyza Carver and Alma Mays, and two brothers.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. J. W. Jumper, of Holcomb at Sparta cemetery Tuesday afternoon.

Sympathy is expressed to the bereaved ones.

Doings With The Colored USO

The Colored USO Club at Grenada, continues to entertain the men in service stationed at Camp McCain, Miss.

Of the many out-of-door affairs that have been sponsored by USO, the watermellon feast on the evening of August 26, given on the Campus of the Colored Grenada High School, stole the show.

There under the stars, there was music, there were interviews by soldiers. USO girls and civilians over the P. A. system, there were games which were enjoyed by everyone. This added color to this outdoor affair.

As the strains of music filled the air, the soldiers and the Volunteer Group of USO had stored away some of the most delicious iced cold golden watermelons which were grown in the fields of Mississippi. Everyone was delighted at this beautiful "Watermelon Feast."

This affair brought together soldiers, junior and senior USO groups who were there in great numbers.

The party made the "MEN FEEL AT HOME WHILE AWAY FROM HOME."

C. J. Kincaide, Director
USO Negro Division.

EDITOR'S NOTE: Kincaide stated that the USO group included 150 colored citizens, seventy-five special civilian guests and between 5 and 6 hundred soldiers. We congratulate him on the way he was conducted all such entertainments for soldiers.

Long Arm of Law Reaches Out to Get Mrs. Bohrer Again

Another chapter in the dramatic life of Mrs. O H. Bohrer was written last night—and once again the locale was Memphis.

The dark eyed, pretty 36-year-old woman, who stands charged with the strangle-murder of her soldier-husband and who attempted suicide while awaiting trial in Grenada, Miss., was arrested at 4650 Avalon on a charge of being a fugitive from justice.

BAD CHECK CHARGE

Detective Lieut. E. V. Johnson and Detective McCleary took her in custody on warrants sworn out in Grenada charging her with passing worthless checks. The woman submitted to arrest meekly and was turned over to Grenada County authorities who whisked her quickly back to that city.

On July 8, detectives traced her to a rooming house in Memphis and quietly took her into custody for Grenada officers who charged she killed her husband. Her husband's body was found in a Grenada hotel room May 5. He had been strangled to death with a long piece of lamp cord. When questioned, Mrs. Bohrer told investigators that her husband committed suicide by drawing the cord tightly about his neck.

JURY WAS DEADLOCKED

He was Othman H. Bohrer, of Bismarck, S. D., stationed at Camp McCain. His wife advanced the theory that he killed himself because he was despondent over being reduced from a sergeant to a private.

Further investigations, however, caused police to discard the suicide angle and warrants were issued which charged Mrs. Bohrer with first degree murder. She was indicted by the Grenada County Grand Jury July 27, but was released on bond when a trial jury reported itself hopelessly deadlocked and the judge declared a mistrial.

Prosecuting attorneys said at the time that she will be brought to trial again during the Fall term of court on the murder charge.—Commercial Appeal.

Convicts Work in Behalf Of Others' Freedom

Men who will never again know the freedom of the poorest American citizen are laboring night and day on behalf of freedom for others. They are the thousands of convicts in American prisons who are helping to bring victory as effectively as those in the outside world who are unhindered by striped suits or iron bars. This paradox becomes logical when it is remembered that these men who have abused freedom—know what its loss means.

Behind the walls of the Ohio state penitentiary 3,550 inmates constantly produce war products at 1½ cents an hour. At these wages they purchased over $20,000 worth of war bonds. Seventy-five per cent of these convicts gave blood to the Red Cross.

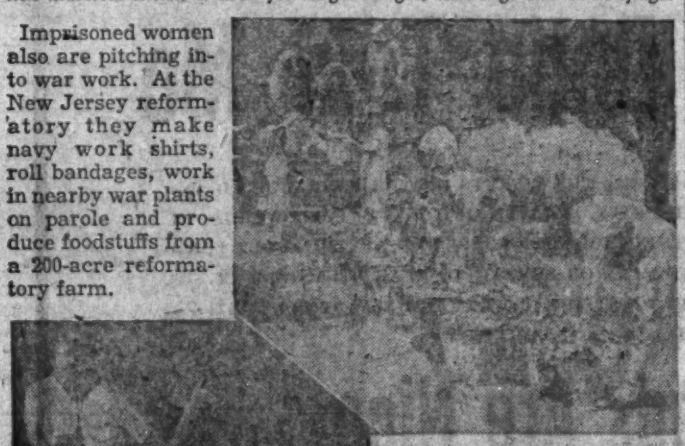
Top: His release is a long way off but he helps America by buying war stamps regularly.

This man learned radio in the navy. He now instructs fellow-convicts in all of its branches.

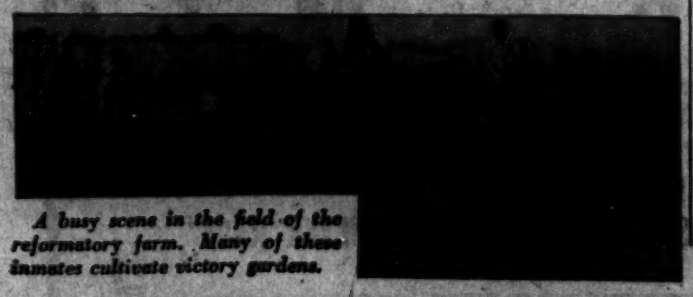
Two of his pupils are these ambitious short-termers who hope to get into the armed forces.

Another convict in a very different kind of war work supervises a battery of machines which dry and roll Osnaburg cloth in the cotton mill. The army has given the prison a contract for 150,000 yards of this material which is used for target ranges, sandbags and camouflage.

Imprisoned women also are pitching into war work. At the New Jersey reformatory they make navy work shirts, roll bandages, work in nearby war plants on parole and produce foodstuffs from a 200-acre reformatory farm.



Above: Women inmates prepare vegetables for market. Left: Part of the day's output of navy shirts are being prepared for shipment. Approximately 350 of these shirts are finished every day in the sewing department of the reformatory, which is operated on the honor system and has no bars or stone walls.



A busy scene in the field of the reformatory farm. Many of these inmates cultivate victory gardens.

ON THE HOME FRONT with RUTH WYETH SPEARS

THIS old fashioned saw tooth quilt pattern has been used for the border of many handsome quilts. It is so modern looking and so simple to piece that it should serve many decorative purposes. Here it trims kitchen curtains of unbleached muslin. In addition to its old time use its angular note would make it effective as a border for luncheon cloths, aprons and various other purposes.

To make a pattern cut a square of cardboard, then cut diagonally; one half will make a triangle pattern. If a bright color is used for the plain triangles, a narrow border will make a good showing.

SNAPPY FACTS ABOUT RUBBER

Rubber shortage will cause motor trucks to be operated this year only 60 per cent of their 1941 mileages, according to OWI. Ton mileage haul in intercity service, however, was up 10 per cent early this year.

Rubber latex, a milk-like substance, contains from 30 to 40 per cent solids; cow's milk has only 12 per cent solids.

Add lettuce to the list of rubber producers! Tests of three varieties of lettuce by the University of California, it has been reported, showed high content of rubber latex.

Lawyer Met His Match In Tinsmith, On and Off

A lawyer, noted for his success in cross-examination, asked a witness how long he had worked at his business of tin-roofing.

"I have worked at it off and on for some time."

"How long off and on?"

"Sixty-five years."

"How old are you?"

"Sixty-five."

"Then you have been a tin-roofer from birth?"

"No, sir; of course I haven't."

"Then why do you say you have worked at your trade 65 years?"

"Because you asked how long off and on I had worked at it. I have worked at the trade 65 years —20 years on and 45 off."

Here there was a roar in the courtroom, but not at the expense of the witness, and the lawyer hurriedly finished his examination in great confusion.

FENCE POST

Question: In building a fence, the posts were driven into the ground and a concrete walk and pavement were then laid around them. The posts have rotted and must now be renewed. How can the new posts be made tight in the holes in the concrete, so that they cannot be moved up and down? How can the underground part of the posts be treated to prevent decay?

Answer: The inside of the holes through the concrete should be gouged and dug with a cold chisel or a pointed hammer, so that the new concrete will have rough surfaces with which to bond. Give the underground parts of each post a heavy treatment of tar or creosote, return to position, and then pour fresh concrete into the holes.

Single Flue Chimney

Question: I would like to replace a side-arm gas water heater with a coal-fired heater. Could I connect this to the single flue in my chimney that serves the furnace? If so, should the connection be close to the furnace connection at the chimney?

Answer: As a general thing, two fires should not be connected to a single flue, because each fire will interfere with the draft of the other. However, with a tall chimney, and one connection much smaller than the other, as it would be in your case, there is a good chance of success. Connect the new smoke-pipe close to the old one at the chimney.

Loose Cement Coating

Question: Last year I knocked off the loose cement coating of my basement foundation wall and put on a new quarter-inch cement coating. I find that in several places the new coating will not stay on, but bulges and falls off. How can I treat these so the new coating will adhere?

Answer: Cement is not adhesive and holds on a surface by hardening around the surface roughnesses. Clean off the bad places and then roughen them by gouging with a cold chisel or a pointed hammer. At the time the new cement goes on the old walls should be thoroughly soaked with water.

Dusty Path

Question: A path that was formerly hard surfaced is now dry and dusty. I am now wondering if it would be advisable to put oil on it. If so, what kind and how much?

Answer: I should not advise using oil, for it would inevitably get into the house and make trouble with floors and floor coverings. You can get a good dust-laying effect with calcium chloride, which is low priced and on common sale. Scatter it on the path in the proportion of a pound to the square yard. Even on a dry day it will absorb enough moisture from the air to become liquified, and will then combine with the dust on the path to form a crust.

Paint Remover

Question: I have bought a can of paint and varnish remover for use on furniture, but find that it works slowly. It also is expensive. I am thinking of using the remover that you have recommended; three pounds of trisodium phosphate dissolved in a gallon of water. I should first like to know if this is likely to bleach the wood.

Answer: No; it has no bleaching effect. Put it on boiling hot with a dishmop or brush; the paint or varnish will quickly soften, and can be wiped and scraped off. Finish by rinsing with clear water to take off all traces of the remover.

Attic Insulation

Question: Some time ago I insulated my attic with rock wool in batt form. I placed the insulation against the roof boards, with the paper on the outside, that is, facing me. Is this the proper way to place the batts? I have heard that if not placed correctly there is a possibility of condensation. Is the paper on the batts sufficient to prevent condensation.

Answer: You have installed the batts correctly and no more covering is needed.

White Lead

Question: What kind of white lead is used to give wood a pickled pine finish?

Answer: Ordinary white lead paste, thinned with turpentine to the consistency of a thick paint is used.

Stuffed Eggplant Will Keep Your Points Down!
(See Recipes Below)

Harvest Foods

Late summer is the truck gardener's paradise, and this summer we might well say the Victory gardener's paradise, for there are many gay and attractive foods ripening now which may make a truly appetizing appearance on your table. For example, the season's choicest tomatoes in their fullest, ripest red make merry at the table now.

There's also golden-eared, tender sweet corn, at its best when picked not more than half an hour before eating. And one of the most dramatic vegetables to do justice to fall dinners is the eggplant—smooth, deep purple and shiny in appearance.

Most of you are undoubtedly familiar with eggplant served sliced and fried—and there's no doubt it's good that way. But for a change, try it baked with a savory stuffing and make it a main dish feature of your dinner. The total cooking time for preparing it in this new way is only 35 minutes—10 minutes for boiling the eggplant in rapidly boiling water, and then 25 minutes baking in a moderate oven.

Stuffed Eggplant.
(Serves 6 to 8)

- 1 eggplant
- 1 cup bread croutons
- 4 strips bacon, cut in squares
- 1 tablespoon onion, minced
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ⅛ teaspoon pepper
- 1 egg

Cook whole eggplant in boiling water for 10 minutes. Cut lengthwise slice from top of eggplant. Remove pulp with a spoon, leaving a substantial shell. Chop pulp. Add croutons. Fry bacon. Brown onion in bacon fat. Add to eggplant pulp. Add the egg and season with salt and pepper. Fill eggplant shell with the mixture and top with the following:

Corn Flake Crumb Topping.

- 2 cups corn flakes
- 1 egg yolk
- ½ teaspoon dry mustard
- 1 teaspoon lemon juice
- ¼ teaspoon salt
- Paprika
- Butter

Roll corn flakes to fine crumbs, combine with egg yolk, mustard, lemon juice and salt. Cover stuffed eggplant with crumb mixture, dot with butter and sprinkle with paprika. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees) for 25 minutes. Serve on a platter with corn on the cob and fresh, sliced tomatoes.

English Baked Squash.
(Serves 6)

- 1 quart peeled, thinly sliced Hubbard squash
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 4 tablespoons sugar
- ½ cup rich cream
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon

Place squash in well-greased baking dish. Sprinkle with salt and sugar. Add cream and sprinkle with cinnamon. Bake covered in a slow (325-degree) oven for about 50 minutes.

Another vegetable comes in for honors—and very different but delicious is this dish, too!

Sour Cream Cabbage.
(Serves 5 to 6)

- 1 head of cabbage
- 2 tablespoons butter
- 1 clove garlic
- ½ cup sour cream
- 1 tablespoon vinegar
- 1 tablespoon sugar
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 egg

Shred the head of cabbage medium fine. Heat the butter in skillet and cook in it slowly the clove of garlic, minced fine. Add cabbage and ¼ cup water. Cover tightly. Bring to a quick steam, reduce heat and cook for 10 more minutes. Just before removing from range, add sour cream sauce made by mixing together the sour cream, vinegar, sugar, salt and egg beaten light. Pour over cabbage and bring to a quick boil. Serve at once.

Here's a spaghetti dish that has a fall tang to it, and is excellent served with fried eggplant and apricot upside-down cake.

Sausages and Spaghetti.
(Serves 6)

- 8 link sausages
- 1 small onion, sliced
- 1 green pepper, chopped
- 1½ teaspoons salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- 2 tablespoons flour
- 2½ cups tomatoes
- 1½ cups spaghetti, cooked

Cut sausages in inch lengths; fry until golden brown. Add onion and green pepper and brown lightly. Add seasonings and flour and blend. Add tomatoes and spaghetti. Bake in a greased baking dish in moderate (350-degree) oven 30 minutes.

Caramel Cinnamon Muffins.
(Makes 1½ dozen 2-inch muffins)

- 2 cups sifted flour
- 2 teaspoons baking powder
- 1 teaspoon cinnamon
- 1 teaspoon salt
- 1 egg
- 2 tablespoons light corn syrup or honey
- 1 cup milk
- 2 tablespoons melted shortening

Sift together flour, baking powder, cinnamon and salt. Beat egg, add syrup, milk and shortening. Blend thoroughly and add to flour mixture. Stir only until flour is moistened. Bake in a moderately hot oven (425 degrees) 20 minutes. Prepare muffin pans as follows for these muffins: Into each muffin cup, put ½ teaspoon butter or margarine and 1 teaspoon corn syrup. Fill with batter ⅔ of an inch full.

Lynn Says:

Color in Your Meals: Do you realize that your eyes eat that food before you actually eat it yourself? If food looks dull and unattractive, your appetite lags and the food, if eaten is consumed without much relish.

The eye wants contrast. Pick foods that go well together. You can serve several green vegetables for one meal, but not several all-white vegetables or all-red.

Combine meat and vegetables on one platter to get a design and save plates besides! Use garnishes with care and give them an opportunity to bring out the most in your foods.

Sprinkle beets with a little lemon juice to make them a more intense red. Cook green vegetables only until done to assure them of being crisp, green.

A dash of lemon juice on apples, pears or other fresh fruit will prevent it from darkening.

The groom's father read the service at the First Baptist Church on St. Charles Avenue at 8 o'clock in the evening. The bride's attendants were Mrs. Shelby Collins, of Dallas, Texas, who attended her as matron of honor, and Misses Mary Frances Morgan, Azaleigh Baker and Ione Henderson as brides maids.

The groom was attended by Mr. Rodney L. Henderson, of Jackson, as best man, and Mr. Merritt Prows, Mr. Ralph Bowman and Mr. Willard Hearing were groomsmen. The ushers were Mr. Fred Sartor and Mr. James Ray Nunez.

Proclamation

TO THE PEOPLE OF THE UNITED STATES

Proclamation

RECOGNIZING THE FACT that in carrying the war into enemy territory, we shall need greater amounts of money than any nation has ever asked from its citizens in all history, I, FRANKLIN D. ROOSEVELT, President of the United States of America, do officially proclaim that on Thursday, the ninth of September, 1943, the Third War Loan shall be launched.

As Commander-in-Chief, I hereby invoke every citizen to give all possible aid and support to this Third War Loan drive, not only so that our financial goal may be reached, but to encourage and inspire those of our husbands and fathers and sons who are under fire on a dozen fronts all over the world. It is my earnest hope that every American will realize that in buying War Bonds in this Third War Loan he has an opportunity to express voluntarily and under the guidance of his conscience, the extent to which he will "back the attack."

The American people supported well the first and second War Loan drives and in fact did even more than was asked of them. Our need for money now is greater than ever, and will continue to grow until the very day that Victory is won; so we must ask far more sacrifice, far more cooperation than ever before.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States of America to be affixed.

DONE at the City of Washington, this twenty-sixth day of July, in the year of our Lord nineteen hundred and forty-three, and of the Independence [SEAL] of the United States of America the one hundred and sixty-eighth.

By the President:
CORDELL HULL
Secretary of State.

Look For "8-43"

More of our subscriptions expire in August, 1943 than any three other months. That is because we started this paper in August, 1937, and those whose subscriptions expire in August are "charter members."

It has been so hellish hot that I have not taken the time to notify our delinquents of their delinquencies. In fact, such notification is not necessary, for you have a notice EVERY week with the numerals, "8-43", meaning August, 1943, or some similar numerals.

Netx week, I expect to give my son, Whyte, Jr., who will be out of Station Hospital soon, a job collecting from about 100 delinquent subscribers on and about the business section, and some wtihin easy walking distance. I hope to get him to fill out some blanks for the delinquents out of town, but do not guarantee this. Following that, unless we have response, we are going to try to "clean-up" our list.

At the present time we have all of the subscribers that our mailing galleys will hold, but we have accumulated quite a number of delinquents in the bunch.

While we have not got to the point that the Winston County Journal has, that is, to put on a new one only when an old one is dropped, we are rapidly approaching that time. On account of the imminent shortage of newsprint, we may be forced to that before we really want to.

These, I hope, will not be taken as threats, or anything like that. I am merely stating facts.

Therefore, I ask you, the delinquents, to do one of three things; either pay up, or give us a good excuse, or write or telephone that you do not want the GCW any longer. Those are fair propositions.

Good Advice To A Friend

I had occasion last week to write the following to a friend, and I believe it is darn good advice:

I am sorry we lost, but there is no use in stirring about in the ashes for we will find nothing in them.

I did not ask you to run. There is no card in your files with my name on it. The files on the GCW will show that I did not want you to run. But, when you announced, I, as usual, did what little I could for you.

The result of the race fooled not only you and your successful opponent but EVERYBODY in Mississippi.

You had EVERYTHING that it takes to win: a fine record and a fine platform.

Swear of politics FOREVER, is my advice.

OPA, And One Georgia Judge

The rent control provisions of the Emergency Price Control Act were declared unconstitutional by Federal Judge Bascomb S. Deaver recently. He used the following language:

In the absence of some controlling decision a court cannot avoid the responsibility of deciding according to its own convictions.

The conviction of this court is that the rent provision of this act is invalid.

The administration agents have become so numerous and government by regulation so extensive that the courts, it is feared, may gradually concede to their increasing insistence and permit the rights of the people to be destroyed and subject them to control by regulations. This was never intended by the Constitution, apparently regarded by some agencies as an outmoulded instrument.

Thank God that there is one Federal Judge who has the guts to see the encroachment of the bureaus on our freedom, and who tries to do something about it.

Christmas Gifts For Soldiers Overseas

Announcement has been made that packages containing Christmas gifts for servicemen overseas must be mailed between September 15 and October 15 to insure delivery on or before Christmas.

With the mercury hovering about 100 degrees and above every day, it seems rather incongruous to be thinking of Christmas gifts, but it must be remembered that it is a long distance on slow ships to many of the boys in service.

Here is where we come in. Send that boy the GCW as a gift, but first, by airmail or V mail, have him write that he wants it. Second, send him a box of Christmas cards with his name printed on the cards. We are fortunate enough to have secured a big lot of boxed cards, the supply of which has been curtailed 60 percent by the OPA (or some outfit like that) below last year's production.

Anyway, do not overlook this: send him his gift between September 15 and October 15.

"I Don't Pay No 'Tenshun . . ."

A negro whom I have known all my life, one who lived on our farm many years, was in the office the other day. I told him that he should not listen to any of these northern negroes and northern white folks, with their revoluntionary ideas, but to listen, as he has done all his life, to the white people who have taken care of him when he was in trouble, have been lenient with him in his imperfections and have loaned him money to pay his fines.

No philosopher since the time of ancient Greece ever gave a more lucid and sensible reply than when he said, "I don't pay no tenshun to fokes I dont know."

One Consolation Anyway

In the defeat of Me and Mike, I can find one consolation anyway.

Nobody will bother me to write a letter to the Governor recommending some sorry man for an important job.

Nobody will bother me to write a letter, or go in person to the Governor to get some red-handed criminal pardoned.

Congratulations From Jackson

LOYALTY

ON your vacation and business trips in the past—as well as at your neighborhood Service Station—you have been served often by loyal men in the Standard Oil uniform. They were loyal to you—they were loyal to us.

It was only natural that men in whom the quality of loyalty was inbred and cherished should respond in large numbers to the call of their country. Hundreds of these stanch and faithful men have exchanged their old Service uniforms for the new uniform of greater service to Uncle Sam.

Someday they will be coming back, their new job finished. You will find them still loyal to you when they return and change their uniforms again.

In the meantime other loyal men, who have been at their home posts, are upholding this service tradition under difficult and sometimes trying conditions.

Loyalty is that personal trait in individuals which makes a Company great—and wins wars.

ISRAEL CALLED TO BE A HOLY PEOPLE

LESSON TEXT—Leviticus 19:1-4, 11-18, 32-34.

GOLDEN TEXT—Be ye holy; for I am holy.—I Peter 1:16.

Labor Day, 1943, with a war-torn world, finds us facing a social order deeply divided regarding the rights and wrongs of the relationship between man and man, especially capital and labor.

For these many years we have talked of a planned economy where kindness and justice shall control all dealings of man with his fellow man. But to accomplish such a result apart from the hand of God to guide and restrain, has proved to be impossible.

Selfishness and sin control too much of the thought and action of our world. We need to be reminded, as was Israel in our lesson, that God has called us to be a holy people. His holiness is not just something of which one sings in a hymn or talks in a sermon. It means among other things, real social justice.

God has always stood for social righteousness. The underlying moral law of the universe demands it, and the law of God as revealed to His people developed and implemented it for successful functioning, were we only wise enough to see and follow it.

It is time that all God's people emphasize God's moral principles in the life of society. Never forgetting that its first business is to preach the redeeming gospel of Christ, the church ought also to make its influence felt for social righteousness.

Our lesson speaks first of the foundational matter in all social justice, namely:

I. Holiness of Heart Before God (Lev. 19:1-4).

Because God is holy, His people were to be holy. It was not a matter of choice or impulse. They belonged to a holy God, they were to be a holy people.

There is an idea current in the church today which has served Satan well, namely, that holiness of life is something which is not required; that it is expected only of a few folk who are spiritually minded, and that the other professed followers of Christ may go on living a worldly, careless, powerless life. It is the devil's own lie. God expects every Christian to be holy.

Such rightness with God shows itself in a rightness with others, which we note as our second point:

II. Holiness of Life Before Men (Lev. 19:11-18, 32-34).

How intensely practical and workable in daily experience were the laws here given to Israel. They are just as apropos to our present day.

1. Honesty (vv. 11-13). No stealing, no perjury, no lying, no oppression, no withholding of wages, none of these could be tolerated, for they dishonored God's name. Think what the elimination of dishonesty in dealing between men would accomplish. Most of our social problems would be solved overnight. Merchants would do well to read verses 35 and 36 in this connection.

2. Kindness (v. 14). The deaf cannot hear what we say about them, nor can the blind see what we do. But the eternal God hears and sees, and He expects us to be kind to them.

3. Fairness (vv. 15, 16). Some assume that a man must be right because he is rich. Others are equally sure that the poor are always worthy of special consideration.

Note the condemnation of the talebearer. Every gossip who reads these words knows that God condemns that evil practice. Nor does He countenance indifference to the welfare of others. Their blood cries out to Him for deliverance (v. 16).

4. Love (vv. 17, 18). "Love thy neighbor as thyself." That is the standard. How much have we done to meet it?

A rebuke may be necessary, but love will not permit grudges, or the seeking of vengeance, even when we have been wronged.

5. Respect (vv. 3, 32). God's Word always stresses the need of a right attitude toward parents. Children need to learn anew the lesson of verse 3.

Then there are the aged (v. 32). Old age pensions doubtless have their place in our complex social order, but perhaps they would not be needed if men and women honored the hoary head and the face of an old man.

A pension does not take the place of honor and love for the aged, even though it may pay the bills. God has high standards.

6. Consideration (vv. 33, 34). The man who knows God will not be party to taking advantage of a stranger. He remembers that he too has been a stranger. To meet with loving kindness and tender care when one is in a strange place should inspire one to go and do likewise.

Soldier Newspapers Are Important Factors In Keeping Up Morale of Our Fighting Men

By ELMO SCOTT WATSON
Released by Western Newspaper Union.

THERE'S an old saying that if two men meet anywhere in the world and one of them is an Englishman, the chances are he'll suggest they start a club.

If that's true, then it's equally true that when any unit of the American army, larger than a squad, arrives at a new post, be it on home or foreign soil, one of the first things the soldiers do is to start their own newspaper! This seems to apply to the fighting fronts as well, for soon after the American forces in Sicily had captured the town of Vittoria, a one-page sheet, called the Doughboy News, made its appearance.

As a matter of fact, the News is a "transplanted" soldier newspaper. It is published by and for the men of the 45th division of the United States Seventh army and it was started while the 45th was in training at Pine camp near Carthage, N. Y., where the paper was printed in the shop of the Carthage Republican-Tribune, a weekly. Its editor is Sgt. Don Robinson, formerly a reporter on the Oklahoma City (Okla.) Daily Times.

The Doughboy News, however, is only one of more than 1,000 such publications—820 camp newspapers in this country, 72 navy papers and 110 service papers abroad. The number of these papers reflect two things:

1. The fact that Americans are the greatest newspaper-reading people in the world, so when an American marches away to war a newspaper seems to be an essential part of his "equipment."

2. Although the home town newspaper is one of the most welcome pieces of mail that a soldier, sailor or marine receives, even this isn't enough for these news-hungry Americans. They want to read news of their own "outfits," their own activities and have the thrill of seeing their own names in print. Hence, the service newspaper.

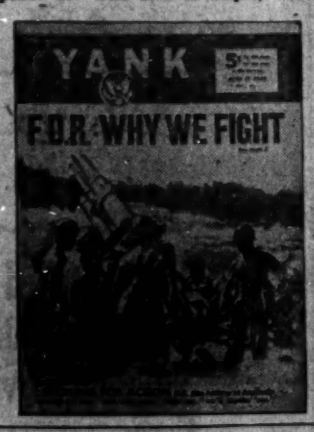
These service newspapers have every imaginable variety of format, size and frequency of issue. There are dailies, semi-weeklies and weeklies. Most of them are printed but many of them, issued where printing facilities are not available, are mimeographed. But they all have one thing in common—they are primarily for the enlisted man and produced by enlisted men.

Outstanding among these publications are two which are international in their scope—Yank and the Stars and Stripes. When Yank was established last year it was intended to be a newspaper for men in the armed forces overseas — soldiers, sailors, marines, members of the coast guard and the merchant marine. However, six weeks after it started it was distributed to men in the camps at home as well as those overseas. Now it has eight editions—two in New York (one for the United States, the other for general overseas distribution), a British edition in London, a Caribbean edition in Puerto Rico, and others in Trinidad, Australia and Hawaii. Other editions are planned for Panama, Alaska and the Persian Gulf Command, the reason for all these editions being to speed up distribution.

On April 18, 1942, a new version of the Stars and Stripes, famous soldier newspaper of World War I, made its appearance in London. Unlike Yank, which began publication later, the Stars and Stripes was not to be for the whole army but for the AEF in the British Isles. It started as a weekly but in November, in response to a demand from its soldier readers who wanted more news from home than they were getting in the English newspapers, it began publishing daily. Since that time it has given birth to several lusty "offspring" in Africa. Soon after the great invasion of November, 1942, the Stars and Stripes was hauled up on an editorial masthead in Algiers and began publication as a weekly. Later it began issuing a daily edition as well as a weekly; and daily editions are also issued in Oran, Casablanca and other African cities.

The African edition of the Stars and Stripes is typical of the American soldier newspaper—breezy and informal in the style of its writing, reflecting "the humor without which democracy would die." Like most service newspapers it prints much soldier verse and one of its poems promises to become immortal. In one of the early issues appeared an eight-line poem by Private William L. Russell under the title of "Tune From Tunis" which told about "Dirty Gertie From Bizerte."

"Tune From Tunis" was reprinted in Yank where Paul Reif, composer of "The Isle of Capri," saw it, wrote some additional verses and set it to music. Since that time other soldiers have added verses of their own (most of which can NOT be printed) and now it seems likely that "Dirty Gertie From Bizerte" will be the World War II counterpart of "Mademoiselle From Armentieres" of World War I fame.



Another soldier newspaper which has won considerable fame for its verse is the Kodiak Bear, published by and for the soldiers, sailors and contractors' workmen stationed at Fort Greely and the naval air station on Kodiak island in the Gulf of Alaska. It started the same week that Pearl Harbor was bombed and one of its most famous poems was called "Valentine Verses to a Geisha Girl" which was an invitation to

Geisha Girl of far Japan
Get aboard an old sampan;
Paddle to some isle Pacific . . .
Kodiak, to be specific.

The poem went on to assure the geisha girl of the warmth of the welcome awaiting her, but ended with this abrupt warning:

Come straight to us, my Lotus-Flower,
Come to our bear-infested bower;
Bring your sisters, brothers, too . . .
Bring your whole damn fleet of two-girl subs.
But be ready for one heluva battle when you get here!

Although army regulations forbid giving out weather data, the Kodiak Bear has its own method of getting around that. For instance, there was this prediction:

The Weather:
Chungking: Belly cold.
Courtesy KODK Weather Bureau.

It is such things as these—bits of humor, typical American "gags," "wisecracks," jokes at the expense of themselves as well as their officers, both commissioned and non-coms (especially the latter!)—which help relieve the monotony and drudgery of the military routine and which make the service man's newspaper such an important part of his everyday life. Military officials testify to the fact that there is nothing like these newspapers to boost the morale of our men in the armed forces, maintain his interest in the job before him. So whether he's stationed in Alaska, Iceland, Trinidad, Australia or Iran, he looks forward each publication day to the arrival of HIS newspaper.

And as the African and Sicilian campaigns have demonstrated, he sees to it that his newspaper goes right along with him to the firing line. The Doughboy News, published in Vittoria, Sicily, may be the latest example of such a paper published deep in what was recently "enemy territory" but it's certain that it won't be the last.

The other day a staff sergeant who is the managing editor of one of the daily editions of the Stars and Stripes in Africa wrote back to his editor-father in the States:

"I'm waiting for the day when we publish either a 'Rome Daily' or a 'Berlin Daily.' Some fun, hey?"

U. S. Soldiers Issued Papers During Wars in 1846-7 and 1861-5

"A new development of the Mexican war was the camp newspaper, nearly a score of which were published by soldier-printers on small hand-presses to serve the various army camps. The most important of these was the American Flag, of Scott's army, which was first published at Matamoras; after the war it was continued at Brownsville, Texas. William C. Toby, a correspondent of the Philadelphia North American, published a North American in Mexico City during the occupation . . . During the Civil war various army and navy papers were issued, usually for brief periods, in both the Northern and Southern forces. Opportunities for such papers came when printer-soldiers were able to secure presses and to use them during intervals between the requirements of active service. Among the camp papers were the Swamp Angel, published on Morris Island, in Charleston Harbor during the siege; the Red River Rover, printed on ruled foolscap on board the steamer Des Moines; the Yazoo Daily Yankee, issued 'semi-occasionally' during the siege of Vicksburg; and the Camp Kettle, 'published at every opportunity by the field and staff officers of the Roundhead Regiment,' which was the 100th Pennsylvania." — From "American Journalism" by Frank L. Mott (Macmillan).

Noisy Gliders

Noise within a closed glider traveling at 150 miles an hour is nearly as loud as that within a plane with engines, owing to the violent agitation of the air as it sweeps over the wings and about the fuselage, says Collier's. This noise, in many instances, has reached a level of 115 decibels, or higher than that in a boiler factory.

Early Coalman Couldn't Sell 'Dirty Black Rock'

In 1828, a few tons of coal were shipped into Cleveland to determine if this kind of fuel could be introduced here. An agent loaded on a wagon and drove up one street and down another almost pleading with the residents to buy a least a small basket full. But they weren't going to be fooled into buying this dirty black rock when they could get wood.

At nightfall the agent drove to a barroom and persuaded the proprietor to try some in the stove. This was the beginning of the coal business in Cleveland.

When you see news photos of soldiers "off duty" in camp or behind the battle-lines—notice how often you'll see them smoking a cigarette. There's a good reason for that. Army officials say that cigarettes are an appreciable factor in maintaining morale—and the soldiers themselves add that a carton of cigarettes from home is always welcome. What brand? Well, sales records in Post Exchanges and Canteens show that Camels are the favorite cigarette with men in all the services. Though there are Post Office restrictions on packages to overseas Army men, you can still send Camels to soldiers in the U. S., and to Sailors, Marines, and Coast Guardsmen wherever they are.—Adv.

Allied Military Representatives Plan Over-All Strategy for Defeat of Axis; Red Troops Close on Nazi Strongholds; October Draft Quota to Include Dads

(EDITOR'S NOTE: When opinions are expressed in these columns, they are those of Western Newspaper Union's news analysis and not necessarily of this newspaper.)

Released by Western Newspaper Union.

With the historic Chateau Frontenac in the background, English-American political and military leaders meet for memorable conference. Seated from left to right are Prime Minister MacKenzie King of Canada; President Roosevelt, and Prime Minister Winston Churchill of England. Standing from left to right, Gen. H. H. Arnold, Sir Charles Portal, Sir Allan Brooke, Adm. Ernest King, Sir John Dill, Gen. George Marshall, Adm. Sir Dudley Pound, and Adm. William Leahy.

MEDITERRANEAN:
Zero Hour

The zero hour for Italy arrived.

Across the Mediterranean, Allied transports massed in North African ports. Axis planes flying in to bomb the shipping were met by walls of steel anti-aircraft fire and scores of fighter planes.

Plowing along the Italian shoreline, Allied cruisers and destroyers poured heavy shells into important railroad junctions and power stations. Overhead, all kinds of bombers — fighter, medium and heavy — dropped high explosives on Axis troops moving along open roads and through mountain passes.

Gen. Dwight Eisenhower

As Allied artillery pumped shells into Italy from Sicily, Gen. Dwight Eisenhower counted 167,000 Axis casualties in the 39-day campaign which won the island. Our own losses were placed at 25,000.

Peace and the Sword

Assault of Hitler's European fortress and policies for dealing with re-occupied countries—upon these momentous questions turned the sixth conference between President Roosevelt and Prime Minister Churchill in Quebec.

Formulating the military grand strategy were approximately 350 army and navy officials from the U. S., Great Britain and Canada. Over their maps they planned, first, the invasion of Europe, then, the conquest of Japan.

Joining Roosevelt and Churchill were their foreign secretaries, Cordell Hull and Anthony Eden. With them, the two Allied leaders discussed the measures to be taken in restoring order in re-occupied nations, and the policies to be pursued to meet Russia's territorial claims and demand for participation in the rehabilitation of Europe.

RUSSIA:
Push Nazis Back

Russian troops closing in on the charred ruins of what was once the mighty industrial city of Kharkov, found their advance delayed by strong German counter-attacks. But as fighting raged at the gates of the former "Pittsburgh" of the Ukraine, other Red forces worked their way northwest to seal off the last railroad running out of the embattled city.

Farther to the south, the Nazis claimed the Russians threw in tanks to re-enforce 150,000 Red troops hammering along the big bend of the Donetz river. This would indicate the Russians concentrated their striking power along the whole Ukrainian front, where the Germans have been making a slow retreat with the Reds pressing forward in the teeth of intensive defensive artillery, mortar and machine gun fire.

The Russians claim the Nazis have 211 divisions, approximating 3,000,000 men, on the eastern front, with 38 divisions in reserve in Poland.

TAXES

Americans buying goods over and above actual necessities may have to pay a spending tax in 1944. Such a tax is under study by the treasury department, which is considering sources for raising an additional 12 billion dollars in revenue next year.

The treasury also has under study a congressional proposal for taxing all income over and above an individual's normal peacetime return.

At any rate, individual and corporation income taxes, excess profits and goods' taxes face an increase.

WORK-STOPPAGE:
Strikers, Plants Hit

Cancellation of draft deferments and suspension of a striker's privilege for other employment were authorized by President Roosevelt for refusal to comply with orders issued by the War Labor board for settlement of industrial disputes.

Mr. Roosevelt also recommended that war contracts, priorities, fuel or transportation be withheld from companies failing to observe the WLB directives.

Other penalties for non-compliance authorized by Mr. Roosevelt include government seizure of plants in extreme cases, and withholding of dues and cancellation of other union benefits until conformance with the WLB orders.

Office of Economic Stabilization Director Fred Vinson was charged with imposition of the penalties. Of 1,000 cases settled by WLB, there have been only seven instances of non-compliance.

Miners on Trial

Thirty miners who appealed for dismissal of indictments against them for conspiring to conduct a strike in government held pits on the grounds that the Smith-Connally anti-strike law was unconstitutional, were denied their motion and ordered to trial by Federal Judge F. P. Schoonmaker in Pittsburgh.

Judge Schoonmaker answered the miners' contentions that the law violated the constitutional provisions for freedom of speech and against involuntary servitude, by declaring that the government's war powers were unlimited.

To the miners' charge that the law would prevent them from discussing working conditions in any plant, the government attorney contended the crime of sedition was almost always committed by the utterance of words alone. But that did not prevent punishment for such speech, he said.

DADS' DRAFT:
Certain to Go

With the draft quota for October set at 312,000 men, the War Manpower commission reported that induction of pre-Pearl Harbordads would begin, with those in non-deferrable jobs being the first to go.

Robert Reynolds

While the WMC was making its announcement, Sen. Robert R. Reynolds of North Carolina declared that congress soon would act to establish a definite draft policy and eliminate the confusion arising from varying WMC directives. Reynolds favored the induction of all single men in the nation before drafting any fathers.

The October quota was set on the basis of the services' goal of 10,800,000 men by January 1. Of these, the army will get 8,200,000, and the navy the rest. However, the navy recently revealed that it had already achieved its mark of 2,665,000 in uniform.

EXPLOSIVES

So huge a quantity of explosives is being turned out by the nation's chemical companies that the government has ordered output be reduced. Less than four months after Pearl Harbor, powder production had surpassed the peak of the first World war. Because of decreased demands for the army and lend-lease shipments, eight army ordnance plants have been placed in a "stand by" or non-producing status, by Undersecretary of War Robert Patterson.

By Delos Wheeler Lovelace

Consolidated Features.—WNU Release.

NEW YORK.—Fresh from an inspection of the WACs, Dr. Minnie Maffett harps once more upon the tune she was singing even before the National Federation of Business and Professional Women elected her their president and spokesman. When this war is over, she says, women must be treated as individuals, not as a separate sex. Employers must give them in particular the same break they have promised men. Must return them to their pre-war jobs.

Wants Same Break For Girls as Men Get After the War

This country, particularly Texas, either has voluntarily treated Dr. Maffett as an individual, or has had to ever since she set out to make her own way. That was, roughly, 40 years ago. She is 61 now, born of a family which settled in Texas more than a hundred years back. She started out as a school teacher, but decided on medicine and hung out her shingle in Dallas when she was 33.

About that time Southern Methodist university needed a physician for women and Dr. Maffett took the job. She still has it but she carries on a general practice, too, is on the staff of a couple of Dallas hospitals, and has her dynamic oar in a dozen other activities.

Dr. Maffett is pink-cheeked, blue-eyed, silvery-haired, a pleasant sight for any patient, especially one of those males she says sometimes discriminate against her sex. A persuasive orator, she is careful to emphasize that women do not seek to supplant men. But a woman's brains, she argues, are good and men should be less reluctant to use them. Dr. Maffett sometimes shakes a finger at women, too. A while back she dressed them down for failing to vote at every opportunity.

NINE years ago a parcel of New York newspaper men trekked west to see the sights of Chicago's Century of Progress and one afternoon they spotted a couple of teen-age boys. The boys were pleasant-faced, their clothes quiet; both were stocky; hardly overweight, certainly not fat, but stocky. An oldster, thin, contemplative, seventyish, walked with them. Henry Ford and his grandsons were visiting their dynamic exhibit at the fair. The newspaper men were politely casual, but at least one blinked at the sight of a billion dollars on, so to speak, the hoof.

H. Ford 2nd Slips Off Uniform; Puts On Heavy Harness

Outwardly casual, probably, but blinking must be the sheals of Ford workers as the elder of the two boys now takes off a navy uniform to take on major authority in the family company. Henry Ford II is just 25, shoved so early into heavy-duty harness by the death of his father.

The long boat ride that any smart fortune teller would have promised the young fellow yesterday is out from here on. Maybe a quick, short one into Lake St. Clair and back, but hardly anything more. Of course, if tank and bomber production do not lag, he may find time to ride a horse. He has won cups for his horsemanship, some extra-shiny ones up at Bar Harbor in Maine.

It is dollars to doughnuts that he takes his uniform off reluctantly. He was doing well in it. Yale, plus sound machineshop instruction from a master, had helped him to his original commission as an ensign and appointment as an instructor at the Great Lakes Training station. And he had already had one promotion. He is still solidly built, with a full mouth, a heavy nose and a smooth left-side part in his hair. In build and the cut of his job he suggests Elliott, of the politically opposite Rooseveits, a trifle.

Well Qualified for The Navy Job He Reluctantly Leaves

Three years ago Henry Ford II married. His wife was the little, more than pretty, Anne McDonnell. They have two daughters, offspring of the kind of romance for which a magazine editor sighs.

The two met seven years ago on the then glistening Normandie, now rising to a second life out of Hudson river mud, and they had a long week of moonlight on the Atlantic.

Back at Yale, young Henry found that his girl's cousin and chum was being sparked by a pal and crew member. There were foursomes at Lake Placid. When Miss Anne needed an operation there was a long-distance call that ran on and on and on until one of the watchful sisters at old St. Vincent's hospital put her sensible foot down.

All the while both families were helping things along at a great rate. Grandfather Ford and Father McDonnell had been friends for years. The wedding that culminated was out of Hans Christian Andersen.

Peace Planners Emphasize Need for Orderly 'D' Day

Planning Board Report Envisions Reintegration Of Men Into Services Where Skill, Ability Are Recognized.

By BAUKHAGE
News Analyst and Commentator.

Next week's release of "Washington Digest" will be written from Quebec, where H. R. Baukhage covered the history-making Roosevelt-Churchill conference for Western Newspaper Union and its affiliated newspapers.

WNU Service, Union Trust Building
Washington, D. C.

As the plans which received their final approval at the Quebec conference start turning from ink and paper to moving men and machines, the thoughts of other planners turn toward another zero hour—"D" day.

The war is not over by any means but hard-headed people who realize that you can't wait until it rains to prepare for a rainy day know that you can't wait until the sun comes out to buy your summer clothes.

"D" day is as important as "M" day. Demobilization is as big a problem as mobilization. Various plans have been worked on, none has been perfected. The President has offered one. The Republican party will offer another. Industry will present its program. The administration, whoever is at the helm when peace comes, will have a heavy responsibility. The National Resources Planning board has already made a report expressing its opinions on a plan drawn up by a special committee on post-war readjustment which, at least, gives us a point of departure.

Plan Needed Now

The board points out that victims of the war are already coming back and the time is ripe. Only the other day, I went through Walter Reed hospital here and saw some of those victims. Saw photographs of the conditions in which they come back and others showing what medical skill has done for them. I also saw the workshops where wounded men are being rehabilitated, fitted to take up work which, in spite of their handicaps, they could learn to do.

This plan emphasizes the need for an orderly demobilization. It is important to get every man who can be spared from the armed forces, the moment he can be spared without threatening the nation's security, back into civilian life. I know how glad I was when I got out of uniform into civvies after the last war.

But the report emphasizes that still more important than speed is order in demobilization. "We not only want the men out of the armed services; we want to get them into peace services where skills and abilities can be fully recognized, utilized and rewarded." That is the thesis of the planning board.

Responsibility for the placement of veterans in industry is acknowledged by the re-employment division of the selective service system under the selective service act. The selective service system is not perfect but considering the job it had to do, it has worked out in a manner that is a triumph of the democratic method. Draft boards are groups of "neighbors" who pass upon each registrant, and on that basis, select or reject him. The same system will put the soldier back into his old job—if his old job is there, and if he can fill it. But many had no jobs. Others for one reason of another will be unable to fill the ones they had before the war. These cases must be taken care of.

Board's Principles

Business has been shuffled and shifted about just as the men themselves have. It may be difficult to get man and job together. The problem is intricate but the committee has tried to lay down certain principles. Here they are:

1. Three months' furlough at the end of the war at regular base pay not to exceed $100 a month, plus family allowances.
2. Beyond that time, if necessary, unemployment insurance for 23 weeks for those who register with the government employment service.
3. Special aid and counsel regarding readjustment and compensation.
4. Special provision, including tuition and allowance, for the continuation of education interrupted by the war or to follow a special course of training.
5. Veterans credit for old age and survivors' insurance on the basis of service in the armed forces.
6. Opportunities for agricultural employment and settlement for a limited number of well-qualified men. But no dumping of men on farms simply because industrial employment is not immediately available.

Re-Training Program

Similar provisions must be made for war workers as war industries close or change over. Meanwhile, the government will maintain centers where assistance and re-training for civilian jobs can be arranged. In order to prevent a too rapid attempt at change-over of industry, a moderate policy of continuation of war contracts some of which can be continued in the national good.

Of course, nothing can be done permanently to stabilize the labor situation without a rapid expansion of peace-time industry toward a goal of full employment. It is well understood even by the most fervent of government planners that private industry and not the government must eventualy furnish the employment.

Already industry is offering plans of its own but it cannot be expected to do the whole job. One suggestion is that government loans be made to industries turning to peace-time production in proportion to the number of men such industries employ.

Business cannot take over the burden alone. In 1939, we were at peace although we were making a lot of war supplies for the Allies. Then 4.1 million workers were employed in munitions making. Eight and six-tenths millions were working on farms or agricultural pursuits. At the end of last year, the workers in war plants had more than doubled. They were 10.5 millions. In agriculture, unemployment has not greatly changed, comparatively speaking; farm workers amount to 8.9 millions. But the men in the armed forces more than doubled. In the same period the unemployed had decreased from 8.7 millions to 1 million. (Some of these we shall always have with us—the lame, the halt and, of course, the lazy.) But it is estimated there were 900,000 persons jobless and deserving work in July of this year.

There may be points to the committee's plan to which objections will be raised. It is not offered as a working drawing, merely as a basis of discussion, but how much better such a procedure is than the policy after the last war when the soldier was a football and where each congress tried to vote more dollars out of the treasury without rhyme or reason; money which didn't provide jobs, which in many cases, pitifully failed of its purpose, and in others simply filled the coffers of the bootlegger and the shark and left the recipient nothing.

Diary of a Broadcaster

Over the land, the Victory gardens are bringing in their rich yields to many a person who probably never worked as hard—physically—for his supper before. And probably never had more fresh, sweet and luscious vegetables.

But I wandered over a farm recently that was crying for rain. I couldn't help thinking, as I pushed through a wood lot beside a shrunken stream, stained brown from the yellow leaves that carpeted it, how all the living things were anguishing with thirst. Twigs snapped under one's feet like dry bones, there was an ugly growl instead of a happy hum from the insects—it seemed that only the tough blue-bottles could survive. Not far from the stream where the earth in the bed of a spring was still damp, one cricket was singing gratefully but there were few of his fellows about. Leaves on tall weeds hung to the stem like a flag at half-staff on a day when no breeze stirs, one yellow-headed flower stood out in a spot of color, it looked like a very sleepy little girl, her damp locks glued to her face almost concealing her tired smile.

I thought: "I wish I could stay here until the rain comes singing through the leaves, wetting cracked lips of the peeling furrows—I believe I would hear a real hymn of rejoicing go up."

Kidneys Must Work Well—
For You To Feel Well
24 hours every day, 7 days every week, never stopping, the kidneys filter waste matter from the blood.
If more people were aware of how the kidneys must constantly remove surplus fluid, excess acids and other waste matter that cannot stay in the blood without injury to health, there would be better understanding of why the whole system is upset when kidneys fail to function properly.
Burning, scanty or too frequent urination sometimes warns that something is wrong. You may suffer nagging backache, headaches, dizziness, rheumatic pains, getting up at nights, swelling.
Why not try Doan's Pills? You will be using a medicine recommended the country over. Doan's stimulate the function of the kidneys and help them to flush out poisonous waste from the blood. They contain nothing harmful. Get Doan's today. Use with confidence. At all drug stores.

You Bailey fellows can laugh, but you have no better governor than I have.

Speaking of the City, I see a legal ad in this issue where the City is proposing to borrow $25,000.00 more dollars, unless a protest is made, in which event the people will have to vote on the matter.

By the benevolence of creditors and good luck the GCW got by another first of the month.

Dear Uncle Sam: is it all right for an officer to get drunk and go unpunished, and for an enlisted man to be busted or put in the brig for the same offense?

The next serious thing the people of Grenada have to think of is the city election.

Up until 1:30 p. m., Tuesday, August 31, 1943, Grenada has not had TWO fires of any consequence at the SAME time. The fire insurance companies are not blind. There is little doubt in my mind that, with the establishment of another fire station, the property owners (who are the principal taxpayers) would save enough in one year to pay for the new station.

Killing two with one stone. Both Mrs. Durrow Horn and Mrs. L. C. Proby renewed recently. Thanks, ladies.

Hope you all do not keep Horn out of devilment this week end, as we MUST revise our mailing list sometime, as it is getting out of hand.

Watch Your Kidneys!

Help Them Cleanse the Blood of Harmful Body Waste

Your kidneys are constantly filtering waste matter from the blood stream. But kidneys sometimes lag in their work—do not act as Nature intended—fail to remove impurities that, if retained, may poison the system and upset the whole body machinery.

Symptoms may be nagging backache, persistent headache, attacks of dizziness, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes—a feeling of nervous anxiety and loss of pep and strength.

Other signs of kidney or bladder disorder are sometimes burning, scanty or too frequent urination.

There should be no doubt that prompt treatment is wiser than neglect. Use Doan's Pills. Doan's have been winning new friends for more than forty years. They have a nation-wide reputation. Are recommended by grateful people the country over. Ask your neighbor!
